

Indigenous Traineeships

Be a part of Australia's leading science and research organisation

CSIRO, the Commonwealth Scientific and Industrial Research Organisation, is Australia's national science agency and one of the largest and most diverse research agencies in the world. We seek to have a profound and positive impact on the most significant challenges and opportunities facing Australia and humanity.

We offer Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people the chance to work on hundreds of projects around Australia in an exciting and stimulating workplace with challenging projects, excellent career development, travel opportunities and access to the latest research and state-of-the-art technology.

Our cadetships offer a combination of full time study and vacation work placements within CSIRO.

A CSIRO cadetship provides for:

- study allowance during each semester
- a books and equipment allowance
- 12 week paid work placement during each year
- financial assistance with HECS costs

Cadets must be enrolled in full-time study for their first undergraduate degree course at an Australian university and will be required to register with the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet's Indigenous Cadetship Support (ICS) Programme:
